NAME THE TEAM CONTEST

The Blue Jays were named in a contest conducted in June and July of 1976. Over 30,000 individual entries were received, suggesting over 4,000 names for the new American League club. From the list of names submitted, specially-appointed panels of judges selected ten names to submit to the Board of Directors. The Directors chose the name "Blue Jays" from that list and announced their decision on August 12th, at which time the team officially became the Toronto Blue Jays Baseball Club.

A total of 154 people submitted the name Blue Jays, and a drawing was held to select a grand prize winner from those who submitted the name. Dr. William Mills of Etobicoke, Ontario, won a pair of season tickets for 1977 and an all-expenses paid trip for himself and his family to watch the Blue Jays at spring training in Dunedin, Florida. Nine runners-up also won season tickets.

BLUE JAYS LOGO

The Blue Jays logo was created by the Toronto design firm of Savage Sloan, Ltd. It depicts a stylized Blue Jay on a red baseball outline incorporating a red maple leaf. The logo features two shades of blue, and red. It was selected to represent three facets of the club's identity: the team name, baseball, and the fact that the team is Canadian.

Waiver and Draft Prices

Waiver Price is	$20,000
Major League Draft Price is	25,000

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE: Major league and National Association clubs participate in two meetings a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with the player for a specified period (from the date of selection until 15 days prior to the next draft meeting). Draft meetings are held in June and January.

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase: Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age. . .Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. .Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase: Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age — now drafted in Regular Phase). . .It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player. . .The order of selection is by lot with the 26 major league clubs divided into two 13-team groups with the groups alternating having first selection in respective drafts.

If a club fails to sign a drafted free agent, its exclusive right to negotiation will expire on a specified date (see below). .Such a player then becomes eligible to be selected at a subsequent date in the secondary phase of the draft.

Date Selected	Rights Expire
Winter Draft	15 days prior to Summer draft
Summer Draft	15 days prior to Winter draft

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: (1) a curfew imposed by law; (2) a time limit permissible under league rules; (3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment; or (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under either provision (3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Note: weather and similar conditions shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the four reasons specified.

Since 1980, if WEATHER forces the termination of a legal game while an INNING IS IN PROGRESS, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or, (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground. . .If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

DISABLED LIST: Pitchers must be on for a minimum of 21 days. All other players may be placed on a 15-day list.

From the Available on Archive.org Ringthebell77 Collection

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEWS: No inning of an American League night game can start after 1:00 a.m., local time. Any inning started prior to 1:00 a.m. can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams.

BALTIMORE CURFEW: On week nights in Baltimore, no inning may be started after 11:59 p.m., but any inning in progress at that time may be played to completion. On Saturday nights in Baltimore, all play must stop at 11:59 p.m. regardless of the game situation.

Any game, regardless of length, called because of the time curfew, becomes a suspended game and must be completed from the exact point of interruption before the teams play their next scheduled game against each other.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6:00 p.m. (i.e. 6:01 p.m., or later), will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:00 p.m., and is delayed by rain or for any other reason, it will be considered a day game.

However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day and one night game, and will not be included in doubleheader statistics.

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: A batting champion must have 502 or more actual plate appearances. (The equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.). If, however, there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then the player shall be awarded the batting championship.

EARNED-RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the earned-run average championship a pitcher must pitch 162 or more innings and have the lowest earned-run average.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: A fielding champion must appear in 108 games at his position, except a catcher, who must appear in 81 games.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, and one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction.)

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

"SAVE" RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
  (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
  (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
  (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE: A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposition changes pitchers.

SCORING RULE ON PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fileder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

A substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a Designated Hitter only.

EARNED-RUNS RULE: The determination of earned-run is as follows:

'An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls; and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.'

Until 1969, the reliefer could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up in that inning. Now, runs, scored by batters who reach base off the reliefer are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is ued, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR": 172 days constitute a full year in the major leagues.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATION: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-man limit (excluding time in military service).

GAME WINNING RBI: The RBI that gives the club the lead it never relinquishes.

MAYBERRY Leads Blue Jays in No-hitter Breakups

The Blue Jays have been one-hit on five occasions throughout their five-year history and Big John Mayberry has been responsible for breaking up the no-hitters on three of those occasions.

Mayberry managed the sole hit on July 7/79 against Texas' Doc Medich in the second inning of a 2-0 loss in Arlington, Tex. He repeated his feat twice in the 1980 season, singling off Geoff Zahn on June 6/80 in a 5-0 loss at Minnesota and again on Sept. 26/80 with a fifth inning solo home run off Boston's Dennis Eckersley in a 3-1 loss at Exhibition Stadium.

Cesar Tovar leads the majors with an all-time high of five while Mayberry is tied for second with San Francisco's Duane Kuiper, each with three.

TORONTO BLUE JAYS 1981

SPRING TRAINING The Blue Jays opened their fifth spring camp in Dunedin with 42 players preparing for the season under manager Bobby Mattick who was back for his second season. . .For the third time in the club's history, the Blue Jays finished .500 or better with a 13-13-1 record. . .They were impressive at the plate with a .305 team batting average while pounding out 13 home runs in 27 games.

SEASON The club opened the 1981 season on the same note as the past four seasons, losing the road opener and winning its home debut. . .The Blue Jays lost by a 6-2 score on April 9 in Detroit but bounced back to win the home opener on April 13 against New York by a 5-1 score. . .They have never won a road opener and have yet to lose a home opener.

WINS AND LOSSES The 1981 season was split by the players' strike and the Blue Jays record in each half-season were complete opposites. . .The club floundered in the first-half, finishing at 16-42 (.276) before rebounding to post a 21-27 (.438) slate in the second-half. . .Overall record in 106 games was 37-69 (.349). . . HOME — The Blue Jays were 17-36 at home during 1981 including a drastically improved 10-14 in the second-half season. . .ROAD — Toronto enjoyed more success on the road during 1981, posting a 20-33 mark (three games better than at home). . .In the second-half, the Blue Jays were 11-13, only one game under .500 on the road. . .VS EAST — Toronto was 15-27 in its own division, 6-16 at home and 9-11 away. . .VS WEST — The Blue Jays were 22-42 against the West, 11-20 at home and 11-22 on the road.

MONTH BY MONTH April, 7-12. . .May, 9-20. . .June, 0-10. . .August, 9-10. . .September/October, 12-17.

STREAKS The Blue Jays longest winning streak was four games on two occasions, once in each half-season . . .May 26-30 and August 11-15. . .The longest losing streak was a club-record 12 games, 11 through the first-half (May 31 to June 11) and the 12th game on August 10, the first game following the players' strike. . . Toronto won three games in a row on three occasions and only had two other losing streaks longer than five games (one six-game streak in the first-half and a five-game skid in the second-half). . .The club's longest winning streak at home was three games while on the road it was four. . .The most consecutive losses at home was six games and on the road the most losses were seven in a row.

STANDINGS The Blue Jays were seventh in the first-half, never ranking higher than a fourth-place tie and then fading to a 16-42 record, 19 games behind. . .The second-half season inspired new life in the club, holding down one of the top four spots through the first two weeks. . .The club had a .500 record through 38 of 48 games on Sept. 22 before slipping in the final two weeks to seventh spot again.

STRIKE RECAP The players' strike began on Friday, June 12 and continued through Thursday, July 30 until a settlement was reached in the early hours of July 31. . .The strike lasted 49 days, however, 10 more days were lost to travel and workouts before play resumed on Monday, August 10. . .The Blue Jays lost 55 games to the strike (27 home, 28 away) including 51 dates (25 home, 26 away).

ATTENDANCE A total of 755,083 fans watched the Blue Jays at home in the strike-shortened 1981 season, an average of 14,805 per game for 51 dates. . .The club has now drawn 6,850,698 in five years in Toronto. . . The Blue Jays biggest loss from the strike may well have been the cancellation of a seven-game homestand in the opening week of August. . .Over 200,000 fans were expected for a three-game series against Detroit and a four-game set with New York, however, the strike settlement did not come in time to save the homestand.

WEATHER The Blue Jays had three home games postponed in 1981, two due to rain and one by fog. . .On the road, the Jays encountered two postponements. . .Two of the three home games were never made up as well as one of the two road games.

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS The Blue Jays had their troubles in the first-half season, primarily because of their inability to win close games. . .Overall, they finished 10-17 in one-run games and 8-9 in two run games. . .The end result was due to a marked improvement in the second-half when the Blue Jays were 8-4 in one-run games and 6-6 in two-run margins compared to the first-half's 2-13 and 2-3 records respectively.

EXTRA-INNINGS The Blue Jays played nine extra-inning games, winning only one, a 14-inning, 5-0 win over Milwaukee on April 29. . .They played four 12-inning games, two 10-inning games, one 13, one 14 and one 15-inning game.

SHUTOUTS The Blue Jays set a club record by losing 20 games without scoring, breaking the previous mark of 19 set in 1978. . .Their 4-20 record in shutout games came about through a 1-11 slate in the first-half and an improved 3-9 mark in the second-half.

DOUBLEHEADERS Another area in 1981 in which the Blue Jays were below average. . .They were 0-5 on the season losing all their twinbills, three in the first-half and two in the second-half.

AT THE PLATE As in the won-lost column, the Blue Jays made a significant improvement in the second-half season batting .237 compared to only .218 in the first-half for a season-ending .226 average. . .JOHN MAYBERRY emerged as the club's slugging leader with 17 home runs and also tied LLOYD MOSEBY for the lead in RBI's with 43 each. . .OTTO VELEZ had 11 home runs and MOSEBY was third with nine. . .VELEZ and BARRY BONNELL tied for third in RBI's with 28 each.

PINCH-HITTERS The Blue Jays ranked fourth in the AL with a .234 average, 18-77 including 15 RBI's. . . GEORGE BELL batted .600 (3-5) as a pinch-hitter while GREG WELLS hit .300 (3-10). . .WILLIE UPSHAW had five RBI's and the only home run by a pinch-hitter while WELLS added four RBI's.

ON THE MOUND The Blue Jays improved their pitching statistics over 1980 by lowering the ERA by 0.38 (from 4.19 to 3.81) and also reducing the number of walks (a 3.55 average per nine innings in 1981 compared to 3.90 in 1980). . .The pitching staff was excellent in the last month of the season, recording a 3.32 ERA in September, with the starters and relievers being equally as effective. . .The best ERA in a single month was April at 3.24.

RELIEVERS This is the one area in which there was an outstanding improvement as the Blue Jays came up with a pair of aces, ROY LEE JACKSON and JOEY McLAUGHLIN. . .The bullpen was 9-15 in decisions on the season while recording 18 saves, five short of the club record despite losing 56 games due to the strike. . . McLAUGHLIN broke two records for saves, picking up 10 on the season (bettering the old record by one) and also saving five games in September for a new monthly record. . .JACKSON was second on the staff with seven saves including three in a row and four in one week (August 11, 12, 14 and 18).

FIELDING The Blue Jays highlight was finishing in a ninth-place tie in double plays with 102 twin-killings, just four short of a one per game average. . .Toronto was 14th overall in average with a .975 mark.

ROOKIES Four rookies made their Major League debuts with the Blue Jays in 1981, GEORGE BELL, JESSE BARFIELD, FRED MANRIQUE and GREG WELLS. . .BELL was the only rookie with the big club for the complete season, appearing in 60 games, batting .233 with some good power, five home runs and 12 RBI's. . .BARFIELD was a pleasant surprise after being recalled in September when he batted .232. . .He started off his career with an eight-game hit streak and also had some power with three doubles, two triples, two home runs and nine RBI's in 25 games. . .WELLS played the second-half season, batting .247 while MANRIQUE was an injury replacement for DAMASO GARCIA, batting .143 in just 14 games.

INJURIES 1981 started out as an injury-free season but within one week in August, two players were lost for the season. . .Second baseman DAMASO GARCIA suffered a broken fifth finger on August 21 when hit by an Ed Farmer pitch and was subsequently placed on the disabled list. . .Earlier in April and May, GARCIA had missed four games due to a sprained right knee. . .Four days later on August 24, right fielder BARRY BONNELL strained tendon muscles in his left knee, an ailment that didn't seem serious, however, BONNELL missed the rest of the season when the knee failed to come around. . .Two other players were affected by minor ailments. . .Shortstop ALFREDO GRIFFIN missed five games in June with a jammed thumb and designated hitter OTTO VELEZ missed a couple of games in September with a pulled groin muscle and also five games in May due to a death in his family.

THE PEARSON CUP

The Pearson Cup Game is an annual exhibition series between the Montreal Expos and the Toronto Blue Jays. The series is named in honour of the late Prime Minister of Canada and Nobel Peace Prize winner, Lester B. Pearson. The proceeds from the game are donated to amateur baseball in Ontario, Quebec and Canada.

The game is played during the season with the site alternating on a yearly basis between the home parks of the two clubs, Olympic Stadium in Montreal and Exhibition Stadium in Toronto. The 1982 game is set for Toronto on Thursday, September 2 at 1:00 p.m.

The series currently stands at 2–0–1 in favour of Montreal following the postponement of the 1981 game due to the players' strike. The Expos won the inaugural game in 1978 by a 5–4 score in 10-innings and also won the 1980 match by a 3–1 score. The 1979 game ended in a 4-4 tie after 10- ½ innings as the result of a curfew due to Montreal's travel schedule.
